NARRATIVE:

Valenzuela, has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 21 and includes multiple inflicting corporal injury on spouse, vehicle theft, assault, multiple battery, theft, contempt of court, petty theft, resisting arrest, disturbing the peace, violating court order to prevent domestic violence, and violation of supervised release. Valenzuela served a three year prison term and was released most recently, to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on 07/03/2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in September 2013 after Valenzuela absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Valenzuela qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for inflicting corporal injury on spouse is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His prior criminal history, and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
